

AI-Trans project + Moldova
Increasing AI Transparency through Digital Alternative Learning of Privacy Training
2019-1-BG01-KA204-062588

November 30th 2021 On-line
Agenda

AI and GDPR – Trends and Practices

The following issues are going to be approached:

- Legal issues: data protection law limitation on AI – challenges;
- Lawfulness of processing; Fairness and discriminations;
- Transparency and the right to information of users;
- Black box processes and application;
- GDPR/national legal framework impact AI and machine learning (big data);
- obligations on companies that collect and process personal data;
- automated individual decision-making, including profiling;
- data protection by design and default

PANEL I LAUNCHING AI-TRANS PROJECT IN MOLDOVA:
Moderator: Mrs Mariana Rufa, Executive Director of the European Business Association
14.00-14.30		Hristo Alaminov , Project Coordinator, Commission for Personal Data Protection of Bulgaria National Erasmus+ Office in Moldova Strategic public-private Partnerships in Increasing AI Transparency Through Digital Alternative Learning of Privacy training Project
PANEL II. AI-TRANS PROJECT IMPACT IN SHAPPING THE NATIONAL LEGAL FRAMEWORK
Moderator: Mr. Sergiu Bozianu, Chairperson , Privacy Research Association of Moldova
14.30 – 15.15		Sergiu Bozianu , Chairperson, Privacy Research Association of Moldova National Legal framework on GDPR – legal harmonization progress through AI-TRANS PROJECT RESULTS Katerina Macuka GDPR Expert, Latvia Mircea Esanu , General Director, Public Services Agency (ASP)
PANEL III. PRIVACY BY DEFAULT - PRIVATE SECTOR TRENDS
Moderator: Diana Pascaru, DPO at Moldcell, Moldova
15.15 – 16.00		Evalds Urtans , CEO/CTO at asya.ai, Lecturer in Riga Technical University Improving communication capacity through artificial intelligence - how to ensure data protection under GDPR
		Diana Pascaru , DPO, Moldcell Opportunities for AI solutions in the telecom sector
		Conclusion and wrap up

